Dear Mr. Weisberg:

This is in reply to your letter of April 23, 1968, concerning records of the Warren Commission.

We have been unable to find a request for a copy of Exhibit 5204 in any of your three letters to which our letter of April 17 was a reply, but a copy of this exhibit will be furnished to you. Copies of the two transcripts you requested will also be prepared and sent to you.

The word "file" was omitted after the word "autopsy" in your quotation of your request concerning the autopsy file in your letter of July 25, 1967. Copies of all records in the autopsy file ("John F. Kennedy 4-1 Autopsy") were furnished to you. Copies of the two memoranda in this file which we informed you we had listed for you to receive were supplied to you. If you have interpreted anything we have said as a promise to notify you of the availability of every record which contains a reference to particular subjects, we must restrict this promise to the specific records which you have requested.

No records concerning Deyahn Calixtas (alias Dione Turner) and Raul Navas (alias Pezzoti) are in relevant name files of the Commission. A report of an interview with Philip Geraci III (CD 75, page 534 and 535) was among the material concerning Geraci that we have furnished you. No memoranda or lists of questions relating to interviews with any of these three persons by members of the staff of the Commission have been found. There are a few records of this type in addition to those by Arlen Specter which you mention, such as Burt W. Griffin's memoranda of March 30 and 31, 1964, concerning the questioning of Sgt. P. T. Dean.

If you can furnish the full name or names of the National States Rights Party members who were involved in the telephone conversation which you say was recorded by the Miami police, we shall make a further search for records relating to it. As we have previously said, we will make records of the Commission available to you to search for any records in which you may be interested.

As the cost of the copies of records which you have ordered in your letter will nearly exhaust your present balance of $13.97, it would be advisable for you to send a remittance to cover the cost of further orders.

I have no wish to engage in a lengthy discussion on all the points involved in your letter. Most of them have been dealt with in previous letters, and there is really nothing new to say on the subject. We have intended to deal fairly with you at all times. I think we have done so. If anything we have done has appeared to you to be otherwise, I regret this very much.

Sincerely yours,

James B. Rhoads
